The SPACEGUN, the integration of ORUR and Cloudbuster was conceived 9/29/1954. On 9/31/1954 an extreme, fast forming humidity deposited heavy moisture on the window panes, on cars, on rocks, and on meadows. The temperature and climate felt subtropical. Brown and yellow leaves turning green AS WE LOOKED AT THEM. Observed by 4 people p 33 - Air Force active overhead, many planes circling our region, a red plane flew 5 times over and around Oronon. We had cleared the sky.

The southwest direction of inputing of DOR and making it OR, by "Orurize" was particularly effective. Going SW to NE for a few seconds would make the blue-grey OR energy stream rapidly, covering the formerly blackish dirty-looking mountains with a fine blue-grey haze. Change in atmosphere felt immediately

Q: Is it possible to draw off DOR from the deserts and draw the moisture from the Pacific Ocean? P 30

"The fluctuation of the relative humidity and OR-DOR balance, of heavy rain clouds as against fuzzy drought clouds was sharp and striking in those days before arrival of the ORUR [denatured Radium (ORUR)]. I could not rid myself of the impression that it worked like a tug of war between two rope-pulling parties."

I was inclined to assume that Ea was the concrete counter agent, counteracting our DOR removal. Ea was probably not capable of standing up in a DOR-free, sparkling, fully-functioning OR atmosphere. It could, so I assumed, exist only where the atmosphere was DORish. From this it followed that if Ea were manned by intelligent living beings, they themselves must somehow not be capable of holding their machines in operation in a DOR-free atmosphere. This idea was supported by the fact that Ea were often absent on nights AFTER "a successful draw" followed by brilliant, summery blue OR days.

The very first day I set it up on the patio [cloudbuster], we had a black helicopter visit us at 2 AM, hovering loudly about 150 feet overhead, and shining the brightest search light imaginable-going around and around our place- in an obvious attempt to both intimidate and video tape us inside our home using special infrared technology (which is standard equipment today, even on local police helicopters). ORGONE BOTHERED BY POWER LINES AND NUCLEUR And that this life-giving substratum is bothered by high-voltage power grids and is in effect irritated into a frenzy by unnatural levels of nuclear radioactivity. water attracts the life force. The bundle of pipes is said to draw Orgone out of the sky wherever it is pointed.

He and his associates would reply that radioactive fallout and other pollutants turn the lively natural-state Orgone into a stale, stagnant, dead form of Orgone which he called DOR, which stands for Deadly Orgone Radiation. He said DOR is a factor in causing droughts by inhibiting rain and cloud formation. One theory of cloud busting is that by drawing the DOR out of the sky with a cloudbuster and then getting the healthy Orgone moving again, the atmosphere returns to its natural cycles which include rain.

For several years he researched what could be done with a cloudbuster to change weather, and said he learned how to raise the energetic level of the surrounding atmosphere instead of just decrease it. When he took his cloud busting equipment to Arizona, events became really strange, including alleged experiences with UFOs. Reich's journal of his 1954 journey reveals an unusual ability to sense the natural landscape and its moods, similar to the awareness and sensitivities of aboriginal peoples.

Reich viewed the cloud busting operation as beneficial, bringing rain to the southwest in January 1955. One morning in Tucson there was so much rain that planes were unable to land at the airport. The previous weeks, he reported prairie grass had sprouted in the desert until in December 1954 the grass was a foot high on land that had been barren as long as anyone living could remember.

When Reich published photographs of trees dying from the tops downward because of poisoning of the biosphere—what he called the "falling of DOR onto the trees"—he was one of the first scientists to warn that the planet could become a lifeless wasteland. His work indicated that the life force within an organism is stimulated by outer Orgone in the atmosphere.

SOURCES OF DOR: near sources of DOR (such as nuclear power plants, radio towers, etc.) has the potential of harming anyone receiving treatment inside it Dead Orgone (DOR), which is bad for living beings,

The arrival of denatured Radium (ORUR), from the Oranur experiment at Rangeley dramatically increased the effectiveness of the cloud busting operations. "While the clearing of the atmosphere had previously been done by drawing off the DOR clouds into a lake, now, within a few seconds, using ORUR material, the sky cleared and became blue...The change in the atmosphere was immediately felt by all observers. Even dirty steel-gray, DOR-affected rain clouds seemed to fill up and become white in a brilliant, formerly dull, stale atmosphere."

However, Ea were also observing the operations. Whenever the familiar pulsating craft were seen in the sky, the rain clouds disappeared and severe DOR infested the atmosphere, making conditions extremely unpleasant for the crew. If the Spacegun was not used, the atmosphere became unbearable. One operator at a Spacegun was paralyzed by DOR while drawing from an Ea. Reich wrote: "There was no escape from the fact that we were at war with a power unknown to man on earth."

ORGONE DEADLY "They cannot tolerate Orgone energy AND They FEAR IT." Their tissues and blood can not take it. Sad lonely chapter of human race. Reich - "No one believes me" he said in a video log

But the ORUR was found to be extremely effective in combating the Ea menace. "One could now reach far into space with ORUR: the range was limitless theoretically, since the OR energy ocean is endless and most sensitive to stimuli as demonstrated by the processes of dawn, dusk, and our actual operations over vast stretches of space."

WATCH FOR METAL CEILINGS WITH CROWDS a metal ceiling in a room full of people may induce a complete standstill of emotional functioning. During 1952 and 1953, there were more prison riots in the USA than ever before in a similar stretch of time. This is now understandable as a revolt of organisms against the torture of living in metal cages with DOR clouds present. CANCER IS ENERGY SUFFOCATION OF CELLS Reich felt it was necessary to treat not only the actual tumor, but to also treat the underlying systemic cause: the Shrinking Biopathy that caused the energy suffocation of the cells. Even a healthy individual's blood contains some T-bacilli. However, healthy red blood cells and tissues normally break down into the strongly radiating blue bions and the tendency toward disintegration into T-bacilli is fought off; the few that exist are immobilized by the stronger bions. Reich felt that the disposition to disease can be determined by the biological resistance of blood and tissue - the orgonotic potency of the body - against the kind of living decay seen when large amounts of T-bacilli appear. Reich felt this was identical to the concept of "immunity". The key to restoring health is to slow the rate of cellular breakdown and change the cell's disintegration from a T-bacilli reaction to a bion reaction. The way to do this is to increase the energy charge in the red blood cells and tissues; the means to do this is to increase the energy charge in the whole body.

Methods to increase an individual's charge include the encouragement of deeper breathing; physical exercise is helpful here, too. The quality of food is also important as studies of the bionous breakdown of food show that more naturally nutritious foods tend to break down into bions; and heavily processed foods produce more T-bacilli. Exposure to fresh air and sunshine also increase energetic charge.

In this regard, emotional therapy is additionally helpful, if not always essential, to aid in releasing the spastic muscles and inhibitions that led to the chronic holding to begin with. And this is often the hardest work. However, if the currently high sales of anti-depressants, stimulants, and Viagra are any indication, the emotional problems Reich observed are still widespread. He saw the biopathies as both a result and cause of our social and family practices that daily recreate the emotional and physical misery.

RADIUM INFO Due to its geologically short half life and intense radioactivity, radium compounds are quite rare, occurring almost exclusively in uranium ores. Radium is highly radioactive and its decay product, radon gas, is also radioactive. Radium (pronounced /'radium/, RAY-dee-um) is a radioactive chemical element which has the symbol Ra and atomic number 88. Its appearance is almost pure white, but it readily oxidizes on exposure to air, turning black. Radium is an alkaline earth metal that is found in trace amounts in uranium ores. Its most stable isotope, ²²⁶Ra, has a half-life of 1602 years and decays into radon gas. Radium (chemical symbol Ra) is a naturally-occurring radioactive metal. Its most common isotopes are radium-226, radium 224, and radium-228. Radium is a radionuclide formed by the decay of uranium and thorium in the environment. It occurs at low levels in virtually all rock, soil, water, plants, and animals.

"With cloudbusting operations, much DOR was removed and fresh Orgone Energy was brought in from the Southwest (along the Galactic Orgone Stream). The immediate result was a freshening of the atmosphere and environment: gone was the parching dryness and gone was the blinding whiteness of the sky. Rainmaking was not the goal; in fact, noticeable results occurred prior to any rain falling on the dry, sandy desert floor. By November, the barren desert north of Tucson began to turn green with a fine growth of new grass! In December, the greening of the desert had spread to cover an area 40 to 80 miles from Tucson with new grass up to one foot high! This happened without any rain falling, due solely to the fresh atmospheric Life Energy and attendant moisture from the Pacific Ocean, 250-400 miles to the Southwest."(1)

CANCER RESEARCH What Reich discovered from his work with bions, is that cancer cells don't develop from healthy cells but a series of changes in the healthy cells must happen first and often long before the cancer cells form. Furthermore, he found that these local changes in healthy tissue are caused by a more general pathology of the entire body. In other words, the formation of the cancer cell is only the last phase of a systemic illness called "cancer".

What were the steps in Reich's research of cancer? First, he examined tissue and cells in a living state, not fixed (killed) and stained with chemicals, and also at very high magnification - over 2000x. He was also the first to make a study of all readily available cells in a cancer patient: blood, sputum, urine, feces, skin, and mucous membranes. He found a special, miss-shapen, club-like cell in cancer patients in areas other than the actual tumor. He also found numerous T-bacilli. This research led to the development of the PAP smear later on by another scientist. Reich himself developed three blood tests that can determine the health of an individual before a tumor develops by evaluating the presence of the special club-shaped cells and T-bacilli in the blood.

After years of research, Reich uncovered the process of cancer cell formation in the body from what was once healthy tissue:

The tissue first becomes weakened from energy stagnation and cells quickly break down into small vesicles or bions that clump together and around which a membrane forms. The new "cells" become the club-shaped cancer cells that gradually become motile and eventually become actual protozoa. Usually death occurs before the protozoa form in humans, but he was able to view and film the entire process in cancer mice. What cancer is doing is breaking down our tissues into protozoans -- a living death!

But what triggers this breakdown in tissue resulting in the cancer tumor? Reich found that chronic energy stasis in the body, accompanied by inhibited respiration and local muscle spasms, often in the area of the tumor, create the preconditions for cancer. This systemic condition is an advanced form of the Shrinking Biopathy; it creates an energy and oxygen suffocation of the tissues. As the weakened cell itself begins to shrink, the cell plasma becomes less in relation to the nucleus which then triggers a survival mechanism in the cell nucleus to divide and multiply. In the highly energetic process of dividing, the nucleus is also discharging great amounts of energy by the "tension-charge-discharge-relaxation" formula found in mitosis. It's as though the rapidly dividing cancer cells try to take up the function of energy discharge for the whole, weakened body. The cancer cell nucleus, by its rapid, energetic division seems to be trying to restore energetic pulsation to the entire body: actually trying to preserve life! However, the cancer cells are also biologically very weak and easily disintegrate into both T-bacilli and bion clumps and the formation of cancer cells increase.

ANORGNIA IS CLAMPING DOWN OF THE ENERGY FUNCTIONS Another condition, which can occur in both the cardiovascular and shrinking biopathies, is the sudden, excessive clamping down of the energy functions in the body which can directly and severely reduce the amount of energy available from the core to the rest of the body. When this condition becomes chronic, it can become part of the shrinking biopathy; or it can occur only when a person experiences severe sexual anxiety. Reich called this condition anorgonia.

"DOR coming down strong", "very bitter taste tasting like offal [Offal is a culinary term used to refer to the entrails and internal organs of a butchered animal.]" "Sour" "Crippling sensation in his right leg" "Right side seemed to go into paralysis" This happened multiple times. "Handshake weak on the right side", "right side of mouth drooping and immobile. Remedy - Southern Comfort and warm bath helped. "Continuous radio static on all bands"

By March 1955, continuous DOR removal operations were set up just to the west of the divide. Within two weeks the barrier was breaking up with a black precipitate form of DOR ("Melanor") falling to the ground and turning the white sand dark. By the end of March rain began to occur in the desert. The breaking of the DOR barrier had accomplished the full breakthrough of fresh OR energy into the desert basin. The expedition was successful. The atmosphere had undergone a radical change, breaking a five year drought and turning completely barren desert land into green pasture again after thousands of years.

It proved conclusively to Reich that desert development was clearly and doubtlessly reversible, that through a new kind of Orgone technology, humanity could convert life-destroying energy back into life-sustaining energy

It became apparent to Reich that although there was moisture in the atmosphere, the lack of actual rainfall around Tucson was due to a DOR barrier somewhere west of the experimental site in Arizona, preventing the clouds and moisture flowing in from the Pacific. The barrier was found to exist on the Sierra mountain divide, where a concentration of DOR was breaking up and dissolving the rain clouds coming in from the west.

Another DOR-creating problem was atomic testing within the desert region. Reich was later to consider the possibility of immunizing the atmosphere against atomic explosions, much as living systems are immunized against infection. By creating a highly 'orurized' atmosphere, he reasoned, the DOR energy from atomic blasts or from Ea could be siphoned off. It was noticed that during the ORUR operations, there were 'coincidentally' many publicly announced postponements of atomic tests.

DOR AND MELANOR "In The Oranur Experiment and The Blackening Rocks (OEB III, V, 1951, 1953), Wilhelm Reich described his discovery of DOR and Melanor. In his report, he told how a black, nauseating corrosive 'substance' attacked crystalline rock, resulting in the rocks disintegrating bionously, turning black and causing a severe excitation in the surrounding atmosphere."

DOR CLOUDS TRAVEL WORLD WIDE IN INTERVALS LIKE FLOATING DISEASE MACHINES. IT IS NOT SMOG These black clouds were passing at irregular intervals over various parts of the world, for various lengths of time, from a few minutes to several days. What is being called "smog" over big cities is a mixture of fog, soot, etc. This fog becomes stagnant and does not dissolve when DOR clouds are present in the atmosphere. It appears not only over big cities, but also in the open countryside which is free of any industrial smoke. So called "smog" has, therefore, little to do with smoke; however, industrial regions full of soot may well enhance the hovering of ODR clouds over big cities. This makes the situation worse than it would be without the presence of smoke particles in the air. The Orgone Institute organized and received reports from many parts of the USA about DOR sickness, the bulk of the reports coming from New York. P 14-15 Orgone engineering

DOR SYMPTOMS FATGUE EMOTIONAL DISTRESS LACK OF OXYGEN Typical symptoms of DOR sickness are: General fatigue and emotional distress; in some cases the fatigue is interrupted or even replaced by emotional outbursts of hatred. Nausea frequently follows in the wake of prolonged fatigue. Pressure in head, chest, arms and legs are common. Respiration is difficult, and sensations of lack of oxygen frequently accompany the distress. Thirst, hunger for much water, is grave under conditions which promote a DOR atmosphere, such as presence of fluorescent lights, neon signs in a restaurant, clocks and watches with luminous dials, x-ray machines in a hospital filled with filing cabinets which act as accumulators of atmospheric energy. p 15 Orgone engineering

BROWN ROCKS What function was responsible for the getting brown of the rocks, after they had become black with Melanor? Answer, 1952: The rocks reacted to the attack by Melanor with bionous disintegration in the silicate (oxides) of granite, and with development of a white powder, microscopically consisting of bions or energy vesicles: A mixture of White and Black plus Yellow Orene should give various shades of Brown. This explanation was later confirmed by chemical analysis of Oranur affected matter, Melanor, Orene, and so-called "Brownite" (Br). This again agreed well with the earlier assumption that Melanor and Orene were functional opposites.

"Tremendous" BLACK CLOUD ATTACK OVER TUCSON. Looked like smoke from a huge fire arose over Tucson. He cloud later spread out and became deep purple with a glowing kind of reddish hue. The Geiger counter registered at that moment 100,000 CPM. The situation appeared threatening, bizarre and frightening at the same time. IT was soon clear that it was NOT a fire. CLOUD BUSTING DEFINED BY REICH The term "Cloudbusting" as used in this paper, shall denote all engineering techniques which deal with the destruction as well as the formation of clouds of water vapor in the atmosphere and of Orgone energy accumulations of all kinds including gravity; briefly, with all phenomena which are related to or derive from atmospheric changes of climate including weather, humidity, amount of rainfall per unit of time, storms, hurricanes, DOR clouds, Oranur functions in the atmosphere, atmospheric OR energy changes of all kinds, the origin of deserts as well as of areas of green vegetation, and all similar functions which depend on the presence or absence, on the scarcity or plentifulness of OR energy, oxygen, water vapor, rain, sun and wind and their interaction. P 34 Orgone engineering

GROWTH COMES FROM ORGONE It is this streaming of energy, and not mechanical viscosity which causes the fluid to rise in plants against gravity. The increasing strength of the urge for mating, in man and animal alike, is obviously due to the same rich flow of OR energy through the living beings. The sap rises richer and faster through the fluid channels in the trees which can be plainly seen in the greater moisture on cutting off the bark. Yellow plus blue results in green. Resin is yellow; it slowly changes at the tips of the branches into green while mixing with the blue of the OR energy from ground and atmosphere. The appearance of the first leaf buds in itself is a clear-cut expression of the expanding force of the OR energy; so is all growth of living matter. It is OR energy pushing against rigid membranous matter which is elastic enough in young living beings to yield to the expansion: Extensive growth, green in trees, budding are the results. The power of this force can easily be observed in the same manner in which a grass blade or flowerseed shoot pushes through heavy pebbles in their way. P 11 Orgone engineering

OR ENERGY EXPANDS AND CONTRACTS Organomic observation and reasoning tell us: The OR energy envelope expands and reaches far out into space in good weather; on the other hand, it withdraws and concentrates at the surface of the globe before the onset of bad weather (Rheumatic and cancerous patients react to this contraction with "pulling pains". The bioenergetic system responds to the surrounding OR energy ocean). The blue haze disappears from the mountains; the mountains appear to be closer. This withdrawal of OR energy from certain places and its concentration in other regions needs weakens the expansive force in the atmospheric OR energy which is directed against the pull of gravity. The smoke from chimneys will not be able to lift straight into the atmosphere against the pull of gravity. On the other hand, with even and strong expansion of OR energy the expansive force which counteracts gravity is powerful enough to make the smoke drift straight upwards. We shall encounter this behavior in a different context, in aviation. P 6 Orgone engineering

GALACTIC ENERGY OR STREAM IS 62 DEGREES SW TO NE The space ships most likely use the so-called "Galactic OR Energy Stream"; according to theoretical deductions (see Cosmic Superimposition, 1951) it runs at an angle of 62 degrees north of the equatorial plane. It cannot be a mere coincidence that most sightings point to a SW to NE direction of the movement of the ships, although many other directions occur too. This assumption appeared important enough to be mentioned. It is supported by the frequency of tornadoes that developed in Texas near the Mexican Gulf, and its coincidence with nearly exactly 62 degrees north-northeast movement of hurricanes and tornadoes in North America (See Figure 3b; also diagram page 32 in "the Blackening Rocks", OEB V/1,2, 1953). In February March 1954, this region was harassed by climatic catastrophes such as sandstorms, dustbowl development, etc. p 26 Orgone Engineering

IRUS X AND INTESTINAL FLU ARE DOR SYMPTOMS The reader of Oranur may remember that M? had struck for the first time forcefully at the end of March 1952, when no Oranur experimentation was going on at Orgonon. But already in January 1951, at the very start of Oranur, a major problem was the falling ill of most workers at Orgonon. As the months and years passed by, many millions of people all through the USA and the world fell ill from DOR sickness. The basic and typical symptoms of DOR sickness, commonly referred to as "Virus X" or "Intestinal Flu", will be enumerated later. DOR sickness has nothing to do with any virus. It is a clear-cut, well circumscribed disease due to preatomic "DOR clouds". P 14 Orgone engineering

ROCKS CRUMBLE TO CLAY WITH EXCITED DOR Why did the rocks at Orgonon disintegrate and change into a brownish black, crumbling mass akin to clay in 1952, and on Mt. Cadillac, Bar Harbor, Maine one year later, in 1953? Answer, 1952: The highly excited DOR energy field which had developed at Orgonon, 1951, had reached sufficient power to make rock disintegrate a few months later at Orgonon. It had spread to Bar Harbor in 1953. It most likely is the agent of rock disintegration in deserts. P 19 Orgone engineering

WHAT CAUSES MELANOR? What could possibly be the significance of the blackening of rocks at the Observatory and in the region around it? "Melanor" (Me), coming from "somewhere", from a source and place unknown, is the opposite of the whitish powdery matter, called "Orite" (Or), into which the rocks disintegrated on the surface. Thus, in our orgonotic language, Me ·/· Or p 18 Orgone engineering

RAIN AND FOG SIGNALS LOWER ORGONE. OR CONCENTRATED IN WATER VAPOR 4) Why did people suffer most in bad weather, in rain or wintery fog, while they recuperated with the return of good, dry and sunny weather? Answer, 1951: This appeared fully explained by the fact that the atmospheric OR energy sinks to a lower potential in bad weather since OR energy is concentrated in the water vapor. p 18 Orgone engineering

FREQUENT WARM BATHS HELP WITH DOR Frequent warm, soaking baths eliminate Melanor from the skin. p 16, Water, tea, orgasms Orgone engineering

DOR CAUSED EMOTIONAL DULLNESS Typical of DOR sickness is an emotional dullness, a letdown in stamina which at times takes the form of stupor in some cases. It goes hand-in-hand with a dull gaze in the eyes, with an expression of despair of the face, not necessarily known to the victim of the disease. At times, a metal ceiling in a room full of people may induce a complete standstill of emotional functioning. P 16 Orgone Engineering

DIARRHEA IS A DOR EMERGENCY Diarrhea is one of the most distressing symptoms in prolonged DOR emergency. The stools become black, due to Melanor which is being eliminated through the intestinal tract. They also become. In advanced cases, soft to watery and contain much mucus. Symptoms of dysentery may develop further, up to amoebae in the stools. This has nothing whatever to do with "infection". The protozoa develop from low charged epithelia (see the Cancer Biopathy, 1948). p 15 Orgone engineering

FOG AND DRIZZLING RAIN AFFECT THE HEART Heart failures with subsequent death are frequent, especially when prolonged fog or drizzling rain with low-lying clouds prevent the supply of fresh oxygen and OR energy from the atmosphere. P 15 Orgone engineering
